

Tourist Information Offices

São Paulo Tourism has produced a video that presents the structure and services offered by the Tourist Information Offices in the city.

Eight TIOs are located at strategic places, aiming at inform visitors and give some tips about the rich cultural and entertainment options in São Paulo, highlighting the city as an international standard destination.